

TIME MANAGEMENT HAS EVOLVED

Paul H. Burton Content Driven Keynotes

Obsessions of a Recovering Workaholic A 12-Step Program for Getting More Done

Paul is a “recovering” expert. He began recovering from chemical dependency in his 20s, lawyering in his 30s, and workaholism in his 40s. These experiences have produced a fun-filled set of principles – 12 to be exact – on how to increase productivity while enjoying work and life more. Learning can be fun and funny!

Scared to Run Outta Time And Other Tall Tales of Success

Everyone likes a good story and most learn best from anecdotes. Every tale in this presentation was crafted from real-life experience, though the facts have been stretched...quite a bit! Your group will thoroughly enjoy this content-rich learning experience.

Delivery Specifics Pricing and Continuing Education

Keynotes: $3,000 per engagement, all materials included.

Combined with Seminars: A $1,000 discount is offered to clients who combine a keynote presentation with a Vision Mechanix training seminar on the same day or during the same event. Contact us at info@visionmechanix.com for more information on seminar programming.

All travel expenses are billed separately.

Generally, keynote presentations are eligible for continuing education credits, but we urge you to contact your local accrediting authority for confirmation.
